

A "CRACKER" OF A CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Given by the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra
(the same Orchestra we usually hear at the Albert Hall)

SATURDAY, 19th DECEMBER 2020 3 PM

CADOGAN HALL, SLOAN SQUARE, LONDON

Back by popular demand, the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra's much-loved "Christmas Cracker" show returns to the Cadogan Hall for another fun-filled extravaganza of Christmas songs, seasonal classics and sing-along carols

Join the orchestra alongside conductor Nick Davies and two special West End vocalists Emma Hatton (Wicked; Evita) and Alex Gaumond (Miss Saigon; Company) for this enchanting Yuletide celebration that's guaranteed to fill you with seasonal cheer. Indulge in the sparkling atmosphere of a decked out Cadogan Hall, with sumptuous mince pies, mulled wine and magical orchestral music – let the Christmas spirit come alive!

COST: £36.50 p.p., including cost of tickets (which include 30% discount), coach and driver's tip. I have only managed to obtain 38 seats at this price, so first come first served. All bookings must be made by Monday, 14th September, and cheques made payable to Woking Leisure Centre 50+ Club. Please fill in the attached form and hand in at any 50+ meeting. Please do not hand deliver to a committee member's private address.

THE COACH WILL LEAVE THE "Alternative Car Park" (EX-3-G) AT 12.30 pm

I will notify you about Car Park Permits nearer the time as we do not have a price as yet.
